PREFACE

In the year 1931 Ralph Peak became interested in the history of his own ancestry and commenced collecting data in regard to it. During the progress of his researches there was awakened in him a desire for more extended information and he was encouraged to continue his efforts until he had accumulated sufficient material to warrant compiling the HEARD-HURD GENEALOGY.

After compiler Ralph E. Peak's death in 1968 his working papers were given to Charles & Ruth Candage by Mr Peaks daughter, Edith Marion Peak.

Ruth and Charles sorted and typed these papers into a two (2) volume HEARD-HURD genealogy (by Peak), copies of which are now (1987) in The Maine Historical Society, Portland, Maine, and in The Maine State Library, Augusta, Maine.

Charles Candage has since continued the research of Ralph Peak on the HEARD-HURD family. This new work about doubles the original pages and is here being consolidated as a PEAK-CANDAGE endeavor.

Mistakes will undoubtedly be found in this volume but they exist not for want of painstaking efforts to avoid them but generally from contradictory statements sent by contributors which are frequently the result not of ignorance but the failure to realize the importance of exactness and completeness. What is worth recording at all is worth recording carefully and correctly and the author would esteem it a favor, if, when mistakes are discovered, to have the corrections and additions sent to him.

The author is obligated to all who have furnished material or who have in any way assisted him in his efforts.

The method of compiling this work is that which is recommended by the New England Historic and Genealogical Society.

The name HEARD-HURD in its various forms of spelling, enjoys one of the greatest antiquities of any name in modern use, it has survived through the ages from the most ancient times. As did many another family which took its name from the occupation of the head of the house a HEARD was a keeper of flocks, a shepherd or herdsman and dates back to early bible times, surely a most ancient calling, and clearly indicates the great antiquity of the family.

The English spelling of the name has been found recorded variously, HERD-HEARD-HIRDE-HORD-HOURD-HURD and to these may be added the spelling found in early New England records, namely, HARD and even HERROD, which came into being through the broad desultory accent of the early colonial days.

The HEARD-HURD Family entered England with William the Conqueror with the Norman prefix "le" and is one of the oldest in Essex County, at an early date branches of this family spread into Suffolk and Norfolk Counties, where many HEARD wills etc. are on record, there were 12000 acres of HEARD estates at Crewkerne, Somerset County, and in this place was William le Herde in the 3rd year of the reign of Edward III, and Robert and Richard le Herde were in Suffolk in 1273 and in the same year we find David le Herde in Norfolk. For centuries in England, many of the name were prominent in civil, professional and military life and the name occurs in the lists of graduates of Oxford and other universities. Our ancestor, Capt. John Heard had his English ancestry in Devonshire County and emigrated from Wiltshire, England during the troubles in the reign of Charles I.

Inasmuch as this work is devoted, as its title indicates, to Capt. John Heard of Dover, New Hampshire, and his descendants, the author makes no attempt to delve into English history: who his parents were or the exact town whence he came we have no definite knowledge and we doubt very much if these facts have ever been or ever will be established, save that it is practically certain that he was in southern England in 1610 and came to America in 1636. The various conjectures and traditions bring us back only to these facts. Among the more probable of these surmises are: In the ranks of the descendants of Luke Heard of Ipswich, Massachusetts there exists at least two conflicting traditions, one is, Four (4) brothers, Edmund, James, John and Luke, sons of Sir Isaac Heard of Wiltshire, England, came to America in 1632 or 1633, Edmund settled in Maine, probably in the vicinity of Wiscasset or Thomaston, James died without issue, Luke finally settled in Ipswich, Massachusetts, and John went to Dover, New Hampshire (this could be our Capt. John) but according to the Essex County, Massachusetts Historical and Genealogical Register, this Luke Heard was a son of Edmund Heard of Claxton, England, these statements cannot both be correct, but now we have a tradition which has been handed down in the Capt. John Heard of Dover, N. H. line, that he was doubtless a son or close relative of William Heard who came to Plymouth, Massachusetts, in the ship "ANN" in 1623, this is also not unlikely, we do know that many from the Plymouth Colony finally settled at what is now York, Maine, which in 1642 was granted a city charter, taking the name Georgianna named for Sir Fernando Gorges but shortly after 1647 this so called "city" was reduced to a town and renamed York, and so this peaceful little village and summer resort of today where crested breakers batter ceaselessly against its beaches and ledges which jut out into the Atlantic to help form "The rockbound coast of Maine"" became what was probably the first incorporated city in America.

Our John Heard was first of York, Maine where he married and where his first child was born in 1643/4 a short time after which he went to Dover, New Hampshire. Sometimes the names of a person's parents may be learned by examining the names of the children. In those days it was a common practice, in fact almost an unwritten law that a family bestow upon one of the sons, the name of his grandfather, of course this proves nothing, but, might be the right clue, let us look over the names of Capt. John''s children which are clearly set forth in the Dover Vital Records, we find no Isaac, Edmund, Luke or James, to indicate any connection with the Ipswich branch (although there was a daughter Katherine) but we do find that the 2nd child of Capt. John bore the name William: so with the absence of positive proof we must firmly though reluctantly, with these facts, or lack of facts, confronting us, for the time being, at least disregard the English ancestry of our Capt. John Heard.

COAT OF ARMS.

There are numerous coats of arms of the various branches of the HURD Family, the one generally accepted as belonging to the Dover, N.H. branch (The Heard Coat of Arms, of Somersetshire) is described as follows, Ar. a Neptune, with an eastern crown of gold, his trident sa, headed or. issuing from a stormy ocean, the left hand grasping a ship's mast appearing above the waves, as part of the wreck, all ppr. on a chief az. the Artic polar star of the first, betw. the water bougets of the second, Crest, a swan, with wings elevated ar. beaked and membered sa., charged on the breast with a rtose gu. barked and seeded ppr. ducally collared, lined and chained or. (granted to Isaac Heard, Lancaster Herald, Garter King of Arms 1762) obiit 22 April 1822.

The first of this name to appear in New England was William Heard of the Plymouth Colony in Massachusetts. In August 1623 the ship "ANN" arrived at Plymouth adding many useful members to the colony, among these was William Heard, said to be of the Devonshire Family in England, among other early Hurd (Heard) settlers in New England was Thomas Heard said to have come from England in 1630, in the Barque "WARWICK" which sailed from the Kentish coast under commission of Mason and Gorges, reached Piscataqua in May of that year, he was a delegate to the General Court at Saco in 1640; and town clerk at Kittery in 1669, John Heard of Kittery (whose male line ran out after the fourth generation) was on the Grand Jury in 1651/2. Warwick Heard of Kittery who was accidently killed in 1646 at age 16 years. Arthur Heard was a witness to a deed in York County 5 September 1634. Luke Heard, weaver, came to New England in 1639, he was, according to some authorities, a son of Edmund Heard of Claxton, England who died in 1626, leaving Luke, Henry, Edmund, Grace and Catherine, this Luke was of Ipswich, Massachusetts and was the progenitor of that branch, John Heard of Boston, tailor, freeman and member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company in 1640, died 1690, leaving sons John, Joseph, Jacob, Benjamin and Samuel. Nathaniel, a great grandson of this John was the first engraver of copper in this country, and engraved the seal of Harvard College.

They were plain men and women, a fair minded, liberty-loving and God-fearing people, a courageous and hardy race, their bravery and stamina is manifested by their ability to overcome great hardships in coming to a new and strange country, there to break into a wilderness and establish homes for themselves and their children, battling against cruel and merciless environments.

CAPT. JOHN HEARD OF DOVER, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Capt. John Heard or Master Heard as he was commonly called while in Dover, was a housewright or carpenter and built many houses in and about York and Dover. His name first appears at what is now York, Maine (then called Georgianna) on 25 June 1640 he served on the Grand Jury at Saco. On 12 June 1648, John Heard, carpenter, sold to John Parker, his house and all his lands in Georgianna, soon after, he took up residence on Campernown's Island, at the mouth of the Piscataqua River where he built a house for Francis Campernown as shown by a bill of sale on March 20, 1651 by Thomas Weathers to Elias Newcome, of one half of the island where John Heard lately dwelled. He, it appears lived there about a year when he returned to York, as shown by the conveyance on July 18, 1650 of a lot of land on the north side of Agamenticus River, also, July 16, 1650 William Hooke of Salisbury, deeded ½ of Cape Neddick to John Aleveke and John Heard of Georgianna, each to receive one quarter part. The following record proves him to be the John Heard of Dover:
"5 November 1680 John Heard of Cocheco (Dover) and wife Elizabeth sold to Sylvester Stover of York all right and title, that was mine, of a quarter part of Cape Neddick Necke"

While living on Campernown's Island, John Heard was charged with burning Campernown's house, October 15, 1650-Court at Georgianna. Capt. Francis Champernown Plt.---John Heard Dft.---for burning Champernown's house. "Jury finds for plt. as good a house as the other and dft. ordered to built it before the last of July 1651".
The burning was probably accidental, for at the next court (March 11, 1651) John Heard is Plt. and Francis Champernown Dft. In review, and Richard Banks and John Herd of Kittery stand bound for John Heard.

While at York, John Heard married Elizabeth Hull (born 1628) and soon after removed to Dover, New Hampshire (known as Cocheco) there to make his permanent home. The remarkable preservation and escape of Widow Elizabeth Heard at the Cocheco massacre is very dramatically related in Cotton Mather's "Magnalia Christi America"

Capt. John Heard was one of the pioneer settlers of Cocheco, and has been called "One of the remarkable men of Dover", and one of the "Historic founders of New Hampshire".

In 1640, the people of Dover met to establish a formal government and the document (the earliest extant document of Dover history) known as the "Combination for Government by ye people at Piscataquack" was signed by 42 men including John Heard, binding themselves together on the following terms.

"Wee being inhabitants upon the River Pascataquack, have voluntarily agreed to combine ourselves into a body Politique, that wee may the more comfortably enjoy the benifit of his Majesties Laws"

In the same year (1640) Capt. Heard was granted "6 yeckeres of land at Cocheco Marsh". It is interesting to note that these six acres were inherited by his son Tristram Heard, who built a house where the present "Rollins Memorial Home for Nurses" of Wentworth Hospital stands. That house and land was inherited by Judge Ezekiel Hurd, whose only daughter Arabella, married Harrison Haley, after the death of Haley and his wife the property passed to the ownership of the trustees of the Wentworth Hospital.

In 1655, Capt. Heard was one of a committee of five, chosen to settle disputes about land boundries. On February 26, 1656, there was a grant of 40 acres to Capt. Heard, in 1661, at a town meeting, he and two others were chosen surveyors, and the year following he was chosen constable for Cocheco, December 5, 1662 he received an additional grant of 50 acres of "upland under ye Great Hill of Cochecoe, on ye soueth sied of the great hill, and soe to the southward fiftie poell in Breadth and Eightie scoer in lenkth". Also February 26, 1665, he was in possession of another grant of 40 acres, "to the northward of the half-way swampe, on the north side of which is a 20 acre lot granted to James Ordway, and soe forty Roedd in Breadth, by the cartway or path which goeth to ye marsh, and 168 Roed in Lenketh". This must be the date of laying out, inasmuch as a grant of 40 acres to Elder Wentworth, on December 5, 1652, on the north side of this John Heard lot, mentions Heard, cartway and swamp: Capt. Heard gave this to his oldest son Benjamin. This same year (1665) he was chosen as a grand juror, he was evidently a man of much importance and possessed of sound judgement as he was frequently chosen to settle disputes, his counsel being always relied upon.

Capt. Heard was commander of a fleet of ships, operating between Dover and foreign ports, while associated in business with Capt. Walderne: hence his title, Capt. or Master. During the time he was engaged in the shipping business his residence was on Dover Neck. About 1655 he built his house on the hill and retired from the foreign shipping business.

This house stood on the brow of the great hill, its exact location was established by articles found in excavating. About 1675, when the Indians began to be dangerous, he had a stockade placed around it and it became famous as the "Heard Garrison" and served as a refuge for families on the east side of the great hill which afterwards became known as "Garrison Hill"

At that time the Heard Garrison was on the extreme frontier of the settlement, a letter from Major Charles Frost, dated March 26, 1690, states, "Heard's Garrison at Cocheco being the frontier and only garrison on the north side of that river" etc.

Of the five garrisons near the falls, that of Capt. Heard's was the only one to withstand the dreadful massacre of June 28, 1689. By some incredible folly, two squaws were allowed to sleep in the kitchen in each garrison, although fears of Indian troubles had sent many persons into the garrisons each night for safety. Early in the morning while the families were still asleep, the squaws opened the gates of the stockades to let the Indians in, but the barking of Widow Heard's dog, just as the Indians were about to enter, awakened Elder Wentworth, who with his family were among those at Heard's Garrison, he arose and closed the gate just in time to keep the Indians at bay, falling on his back he braced his feet against the gates, holding it closed until others of the household came to his aid. The Indians fired through the door, but no one was hit.

For years afterwards the Heard Garrison with its battered walls, telling of nearly fifty years of defence from savages of the most ferocious tribes, stood as a monument to those brave and valiant men and their patient wives.

Before relating the story of the Cocheco Massacre and the remarkable escape of Widow Elizabeth Heard, it would be well to tell the facts leading up to this attack. The following is gleaned from "Indian Wars of New England" by H. M. Sylvester, and "Stackpole's History of N. H.".

On September 6, 1676, two companies of troops under Capts. Joseph Syll and William Hathorne, came to Cocheco where 400 Indians belonging to the several Abenake tribes, with whom were many of the remnants from Massachusetts, had gathered at the house of Major Walderne: they were friendly to Walderne, and it was only by the utmost effort that the latter was able to keep the Massachusetts troops from making an immediate attack on the savages, as their orders were to seize all Indians who had been concerned in King Phillip's War.
Walderne compromised with Syll and Hathorne, and a stratagem was concocted, that for treachery has no equal in Indian annals. Belknap relates this disreputable episode as follows.

The Major proposed to the Indians to have a training the next day, and a sham fight after the English mode: and summoning his own men, with those of Capt. Frost of Kittery, they in conjunction with the two companies, formed one party, and the Indians another. Having diverted them a while in this manner, they caused the Indians to fire the first volley: by a peculir dexterity, the whole body of them (except 2 or 3) were surrounded, before they could form a suspicion of what was intended. They were immediatly seized and disarmed, without the loss of a single man on either side. A separation was then made: Wannalancet with the Pennacook Indians, and others who had joined in making peace the winter before, were peaceably dismissed: but the strange Indians (as they were called) who had fled from the southward and taken refuge among them, were made prisoners, to the number of 200: and being sent to Boston, 7 or 8 of them who were known to have killed Englishmen, were condemned and hanged: the rest sold into slavery in foreign parts.

Among those who escaped was a young Indian lad who took refuge at the Heard Garrison, Mrs Heard concealed him, and, after the trouble was over, gave him his liberty. a kindness which he afterwards requited by shielding her from harm for he was the same Indian who a dozen years later, spared her life at the Cocheco Massacre when he discovered her in the thicket outside Walderne's Garrison, for Indians proverbially nourish gratitude as long as they do revenge.

MRS ELIZABETH HEARD AT THE COCHECO MASSACRE

The following article is taken from Cotton Mather's "Magnalia Christi Americana": or "The History of New England", pages 591-592.

Mrs Elizabeth Heard, a widow of a good estate, a mother of many children and a daughter of Mr. Hull, a reverened minister formerly living at Piscataqua, now living at Quochecho. Happening to be at Portsmouth on the day before Quochecho was cut off, she returned thither in the night with one daughter and three sons, all masters of families. When they came near Quochecho, they were astonished with a prodigious noise of Indians, howling, shooting, shouting, and roaring according to their manner in making an assault. Their distress for their families carried them still further up the river, till they secretly and silently passed by some number of the raging savages. They landed about one hundred rods from Major Waldern's garrison; and running up the hill, they saw many lights in the windows of the garrison, which they concluded the English within had set up for the direction of those who might seek refuge there. Coming to the gate, they desired entrance; which not being readily granted, they called earnestly, and bounced and knocked, and cried out of their unkindness within, that they would not open to them in this extremity. No answer being yet made, they began to doubt whether all was well, and one of the young men then climbing up the wall, saw a horrible tawny in the entry with a gun in his hand. A grevious consternation seized now upon them; and Mrs. Heard sitting down without the gate through despair and faintness, unable to stir any further, charged her children to shift for themselves, for she must unavoidably there end her days. They, finding it impossible to carry her with them, with heavy hearts forsook her; but then coming better to herself, she fled and hid among the Barberry bushes in the garden: and then hastening from thence, because the daylight advanced, she sheltered herself (though seen by two of the Indians) in a thicket of other bushes, about thirty rods from the house. Here she had not been long before an Indian came towards her, with a pistol in his hand: the fellow came up to her, and stared her in the face, but said nothing to her, nor she to him. He went a little way back, and came again, and stared upon her as before, but said nothing; whereupon she asked him, "what he would have?" He still said nothing, but went away to the house co-hooping, and returned unto her no more. Being thus unaccountably preserved, she made several essays to pass the river, but found herself unable to do it; and finding all places on that side the river filled with blood, and fire, and hideous outcries, thereupon she returned to her old bush and there poured out her ardent prayers to God for help in this distress. She continued in the bush until the garrison was burnt, and the enemy was gone; and then she stole along by the river-side, until she came to a boom, where she passed over. Many sad effects of cruelty she saw left by the Indians in her way; until arriving at Capt. Gerrish's garrison, she there found refuge from the storm; and here she had the satisfaction to understand that her own garrison, though one of the first that was assaulted, had been bravely defended and maintained against the adversary. This gentlewoman's garrison was the most extreme frontier of the province, and more obnoxious than any other, and more uncapable of relief; nevertheless, by her presence and courage, it held out all the war, even for ten years together; and the persons in it have enjoyed very eminent preservation. The garrison had been deserted, if she had accepted offers that were made by her friends, of living in Safety at Portsmouth: which would have been a damage to the town and land: but by her encouragement this post was thus kept.

John (his mark) heard

Recorded 1692

The will of Capt. John Heard (above) was never legally proved, that is, not by the regular and prescribed methods:
At a Council held at Portsmouth, the will of John Heard of Cocheco dated April 2, 1687, was offered to be proved. All witnesses to the will had been killed by the Indians before the executor of sd. will could have them sworn in, and there being no legal authority at that time in the province to otherwise allow or approve of the Probate of Wills, the following evidence was sworn---William Vaughn Esq., John Gerrish Esq., and John Hamm of Cocheco (57 Yrs) said they were acquainted with the witnesses to sd. will, viz. Richard Walderne, Abraham Lee, and John Evans, had seen them write their nam,es and verily believed the names were their own handwriting. The Governor and Council therefore declaired the sd. will to be proved and allowed. (Portsmouth May 29,, 1702) His Excellency, J. Dudly, Chas. Story, Sec't.

It is the opinion that altho by the Providence of Almighty God the said will could not be legally prooved by reason of the wittnesses thereto being all cut off and destroyed by the Indians or Heathen enemy yett the said Estate ought to be distributed according to the intent and circumstantial reasons to be the true and last will of John Heard, deceased. (signed Chas. Story, Sec't.)

It was ordered that the Secretary give notice to Tristram Herd, that sd. will is approved and that he has to show just cause why sd. will should not be allowed. At a Court of Probate of Wills etc., held att Portsmouth before the Honorable Wm. Partridge Esq., Lieut. Governor of said Province September 4, 1702, Tristram Heard moved to his Honor the Lieut. Governor by his Attorneys Mr. Jabis Ring and Mr. Thomas Manning that the said Hird might have letters of Administration granted to him of the estate of his father John Hird.

The Lieut. Governor was pleased to answer that as there was a will formerly made by the said John Hird and was endeavored to be proved in Sr. Edmund Andrews time but all the witnesses being suddenly cutt off by the Indians said will was never legally proved and the execr. mentioned in said will had taken the Estate into his hands and he being sometime since deceased the widow of said executer mentioned in said will hath possessed the estate and enjoyed the same to this time therefore he thinks it not proper to grant Letters of Administration to said Tristam Hird in any other manner but as de bonis cum testamento Annexo.

Apparently Tristram Heard, who appears to have been the most aggressive of all the sons of Capt. John, was not satisfied with the disposition of his father's estate. During these legal proceedings he was represented as being the ONLY son of Capt. John then living: This was of course not true as the oldest son, Benjamin was living at Salisbury, Massachusetts (30 miles distant). Either Tristram was not aware of the existance of his brother's Benjamin and John (who went to New Jersey), or the representation was made by some person not properly informed and without Tristram's knowledge..

Rev. Joseph Hull, son of Thomas and Joanne (Peson) Hull was born about 1595 in Crewkerne, Somersetshire, England, where his parents were married 11 January 1572/3 (Somersetshire Parish Register 5:6). At the age of 17 years (22 May 1612) he matriculated at Oxford University and was admitted to the degree B.A. 14 November 1614. He was instituted rector of Northleigh in the County of Devon, 4 April 1621. He resigned there in 1632 and from the vicinity of Crewkerne he gathered a company of 106 souls who, under his leadership on 20 March 1635, sailed from Weymouth in Dorset. They landed at Dorchester, Massachusetts Bay, 7 June 1635 and he was a deputy from Hingham to the General Court, 7 September 1638 and again 13 March 1639.

He was made freeman 2 September 1635. He was an Episcopal clergyman and preached at Weymouth, Hingham, Barnstable and Yarmouth. Massachusetts, and in 1643 he removed to York, Maine. He went back to England in 1652 but returned to New England and is recordedd as minister at Oyster River (now Durham, New Hampshire).

He married 1st, in England, Joanne Coffin, and 2nd, also in England, prior to 1635, Agnes _____. He died 19 November 1665 at the Isle of Shoals, New Hampshire.

2. BENJAMIN HEARD 2, JOHN 1

the son of Capt. John and Elizabeth (Hull) Heard, was born 20 February 1643/4, York, Maine, and he died 22 January 1709/10, Salisbury, Mass. Benjamin Heard was admitted freeman 21 June 1669, and he, like his father was styled "Capt", and lived on the 40 acre lot left him in his father's will, located on "Fresh Creek" on the road from Dover to South Berwick, Here in the year 1690 he built the house which, with 60 acres of land was sold for 260L on 16 April 1767 by Benjamin 4 Heard (the grandson of the builder) to James Guppy of Portsmouth and from then on it became known as the "Guppy House". this house is still standing (1960) as staunch and sound as the day it was built, one of the oldest in Dover, New Hampshire.

He married 1st, (1671), Elizabeth 2 Roberts, daughter of Gov. Thomas 1 and Rebecca Roberts of Dover Neck, New Hampshire (see will of Thomas Roberts, dated 27 September 1673 and proved 30 June 1674).

He married 2nd, (23 May 1690, Salisbury, Massachusetts),
Ruth Eastman, who was born 21 January 1661, Salisbury, Massachusetts, the daughter of Roger 1 Eastman (immigrant ancestor of all of that name in America) who was born 1611 in England, came to this country in 1638 in the ship "Confidence" and landed in Salisbury, Massachusetts, where he died 11 March 1697. Ruth Heard was admitted to ye 1st Church in Salisbury, Massachusetts 9 April 1699.

Ruth married 2nd, (2 December 1717), John 2 Tappan (as his 2nd wife). He was the son of Abraham 1 Tappan.

The "James Guppy House" was built in 1690 by Capt. Benjamin Heard, eldest son of Capt. John Heard. It is an ordinary two story, pitched roof house, built in an extraordinary way. The frame is all of white oak and the timbers are finished off in each room. A beam showing a foot wide runs along the side of the two front rooms, and a cross timber holds the house firmly together. Mortised into these is a beam nearly 18 inches wide running across the ceiling in the middle of the front rooms. Heavy corner posts are visible in each corner. The great beams are very smooth and are beaded on each edge. The west room or parlor is finished in clear pine in a very ornate style. A handsome buffet in the southwest corner would put the workmen of today to their wit's end if they were obliged to do the work and make the joints with the tools used two hundred and fifty years ago. The entry is paneled from top to bottom: the stairs are winding and have a substantial balustrade. The living room of Capt. Heard had an immense fireplace, taking up nearly two-thirds of one side of the room, and a small china closet is built under the stairs. The bedrooms were paneled off from the living room and were very small. The house stands on a ledge and the immense chimney is built on the solid rock. Capt. Benjamin Heard lived here for a few months for in 1690 he removed to Salisbury, Mass., where he married 2nd, Ruth Eastman. His son Benjamin Jr., then in his early twenties remained on the farm where, on 10 February 1698, according to Pike's Journal, "Benjamin Heard Jr. of Dover died of violent fever", and at the death of Benjamin (2) 22 January 1709/10, this famous house and farm passed to the second son James 3 Heard whose son Benjamin 4 sold the property to James Guppy of Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

He married (1686), Experience Otis, who was born 7 November 1666, and she died 8 February 1700, the daughter of Richard and Rose (Stoughton) Otis, as shown by the following record "March 20 1686/7 whereas there is an intention of marriage between Samuel Heard and Experience Otis daughter of Richard Otis, blacksmith: Widow Experience Heard was scalped by Indians July 26, 1696, she recovered and married 2nd, William Jenkins by whom she had one child, she died "chiefly from her wound bleeding".

Letter of adminstration of the estate of Samuel Heard was granted to Experience, widow of Samuel Heard dec'd August 31 1697, which estate, appraised by Nathaniel Heard, Thomas Downs and Ezekiel Wentworth, totalled 162 pounds, 3 shillings, 6 pence. John Ham

At a council at Great Island, April 24, 1693, it was "ordered that 5 men be raised for Samuel Heard's Garrison", N.H.S. papers Vo. 2. He was on the Grand Jury at Portsmouth June 8 1693 and was selectman of Dover in 1694 in which year he had a grant of land at Indigo Hill. He and Thomas Downs were the appraisers of the estate of William Horne February 27, 1692. October 1, 1718, Samuel Heard, only brother surviving to John Heard, deceased, acknowledged his free consent to ye foregoing instrument". signed, Samuel Heard. The GARLAND FAMILY in America begins with Peter 1 Garland, mariner, first found as a resident of Charlestown, Massachusetts Bay, in 1637. It is believed he was the ancestor of all the early settlers of that name in America. Peter, with his wife, several sons and perhaps daughters, came from Wales between 1620 and 1627. Several of the sons settled in Massachusetts and New Hampshire and others in Maryland and Virginia. They were of the Sussex branch of the Garland family in England and moved to Wales. Peter 1 Garland, born in England, married Elizabeth _____, who died 1687, aged 88 years.

Their 2nd son was Peter 2 Garland, born prior to 1615, who married (about 1650) Joan _____, lived in Boston in 1654, was a member of the Dover, New Hampshire Combination, established October 20, 1640, and owned a house and lot in Hampton, New Hampshire in 1666, very little further is known of him. Tristram Heard do oblige myself, my heirs, etc. to deliver up the possession of sd. land to the heirs of sd. Waldron on demand upon the forfiture of 500 pounds money etc.

May 28, 1704-Sacrement Day. An ambush of 4 Indians lay betwixt Tristram Heard's and Ephraim Wentworth's on the north side of Garrison Hill, this was happily discovered and all escaped.

Among the Dover Land Grants, we find "June 29, 1714, land laid out to Lt. 16. MARY HAM 3, MARY HEARD 2, JOHN 1, the daughter of John and Mary (Heard) Ham, was born 2 October 1668, Dover, New Hampshire, died _____

She married 1st, (30 June 1686),
John 2 Horne, who was born 25 October 1663, Dover, N.H., and he died 18 March 1697 of Malignant fever, the 2nd of eight children of William and Elizabeth Horne.

She married 2nd, (29 August 1698),
John Waldron, who died 1740.

William 1 Horne the first of that name in Dover, N.H. was in Salisbury, Massachusetts as early as 1658 and was on the Dover tax list in 1659, married Elizabeth (daughter of John and Jane) Clough of Salisbury, Mass. William Horne was killed in the Indian Massacre at Dover, N.H. 28 June 1689, his wife, Elizabeth was also killed by Indians 30 September 1707.

John Waldron (so tradition has it) was picked up in the streets of an English sea-port while a boy, in an "unfair manner", by Master John Heard and taken to Dover, N.H. and kept as a chore boy: the exaggeration of this story is very silly and should be given but little credence, provided, Master Heard did "Shanghai" the boy and provided also, the Waldron did not come of his own accord, it is a fact that he was given a good living and Capt. Heard remembered him in his will, young Waldron liked his adopted family, in fact, thought enough of them to marry Capt. Heard's granddaughter, Mary (Ham) Horne, widow of John 2 Horne. Some of this family have claimed kinship with old Major Richard Walderne's family but if there were any connection, it was on the other side of the ocean, besides the Major's name was Walderne not Waldron and Walderne was the name of Richard's English ancestry. Their social position here was very different: Richard was Speaker of the Massachusetts House, Major General, President of the Province of New Hampshire:

John was Capt. Heard's chore boy, Richard had great landed possessions, John began without a penny, but in successive generations the great possessions of Dick dwindled to nothing while John and John's heirs came to own thousands of acres. The descendants of Dick had little influence in Dover while John's grandson swept the town at every election and, strangest of all, the Major's own son abandoned his Hereditory surname and adopted and gave to his descendants the patronymic of the "chore boy". John Waldron died 1740, his will dated 12 May 1740, and proved 20 July 1740 following, he was survived by his wife Mary who was received into the Church of Dover 1 August 1742.

James 1 Rollins, the immigrant ancestor, came from Hertfordshire, England, emigrated to America in 1632 and landed at Ipswich, Mass. with the other settlers of that town. He did not remain there long for he is mentioned as being at Newbury, Mass. in 1634. We next hear of him at Dover, N.H. where he was located as early as 1644 as he received a grant of land from the town July 10 of that year, another grant of 100 acres was laid out for him November 26, 1656. He resided in that part of Dover called Bloody Point (now Newington) till his death.

His will dated December 16, 1685, proved July 25, 1691. He and his wife Hannah had six sons and one daughter, the oldest being Ichabod 2 whose son Jeremiah 3 married Elizabeth Ham.

19. JOSEPH HAM 3, MARY HEARD 2, JOHN 1, the son of John and Mary

He married (1704),
Tamsen Meserve, the daughter of Clement 2 and Elizabeth Meserve.
He had one full share of the common lands of Dover, N.H. in 1732.

In the year 1723, previous to his death, his three little daughters, Mary, Tamsen and Abigail were persued by red men, little Mary, eldest of the three, escaped by the swiftness of her feet and as she ran she could hear the hard breathing of the Indian behind her as his companions jeered him for not being able to outrun a "white squaw". Her parents heard shots fired and hastening to the scene, met little Mary in her mad flight, and drove the redskins away but they took the other two girls with them, and later their mother made the journey to Canada and with difficulty, obtained possession of their daughters again.

Clement Meserve whom tradition makes to have come from the Isle of Jersey to America, was a tax payer in Portsmouth, N.H. in 1673, took the oath of allegience in 1685 and had a seat in the meeting house in 1693, later he lived in Newington, N.H. Both he and his wife died before 1720.

(Wentworth or Waldern) Heard, was born 15 February 1692, Dover, N.H., and he died 27 June 1746, Rochester, N.H..

Rebecca Richards of that town. They were both baptized 3 July 1726 in Dover, N.H., and she was admitted to the church in Rochester 25 Feb.1739

On June 27, 1746, Joseph Heard, Joseph Richards, John Wentworth and Gershom Downs were killed by Indians on the main road about two miles from the foot of the town. " (A book of records of the Church of Christ in Rochester A.D. 1766), A thrill of horror ran through the settlement when on the 27th day of June 1746, by an artfully contrived and boldly executed plot, four men were murdered within sight of a garrison, and a fifth was wounded and taken prisoner. There names were Joseph Heard, Gershom Downs, John Richards and John Wentworth. They were on the way to their work in the field, carrying guns and traveling in company for mutual protection. A band of Indians, having first sent one of their number forward to station himself behind a tree at a convenient distance on the opposite side of the road, had concealed themselves near where these men must pass. Having thus prepared a snare with the noted cunning of the race, they awaited the approach of their victims. When the workmen arrived at the ambush the solitary decoy suddenly stepped forth in full view and fired upon the company.

"Face your enemies: fire", was the instant order of Joseph Richards who acted as captain. All, immediatly discharged their pieces at the savage, who thus having drawn their fire, instantly disappeared and escaped unharmed. The remaining Indians rushed forward with terrific whoops and yells. All the guns on both sides having been discharged, an exciting race ensued. The men fled down the road toward a deserted house owned by John Richards, the Indians followed with caution, lest some of the guns might still remain loaded, the flying party, except John Richards who was wounded succeeded in reaching the house. Closing the door behind them, they planted themselves firmly against it and hastened to reload their guns, but before they could do this, the Indians mounted to the roof, tore off the poles of which it was constructed and falling upon the now defenceless men, despatched them in the most brutal manner, this massacre occurred near the spot where a schoolhouse now stands (1892) on the main road".

i. MARY HEARD, born _____

She married Benjamin Roberts Jr. of Dover, New Hampshire.

Tristram Herd late of Dover, deceased.", for 300 pounds current money, March 19, 1738/9 to Ezra Kimball of Dover, land at a place commonly called Scatterwitt, "being 30 acres, westerly joining land of Ebenezer Varney Jr. northerly on land of William Horne, easterly on land of Tristram Heard Jr. southerly on Scatterwit highway-being the same given by Lieut. ii. NATHANIEL HEARD, born _____, died _____(living 1734)

The above are the only children of Nathaniel Heard mentioned in the will of Lt. Tristram 2 Heard.

James 1 Warren was in Kittery, Me. prior to 1656, either he was born in England or was of English descent, his wife was Margaret _____, a native of Ireland. When Cromwell gained a victory over the royal troops at Dunbar in the north, he banished his prisoners from the realm of England, not knowing how better to dispose of them, and sent them to America.

From Boston they were despatched down the coast to a more conservative royalist colony planted by Gorges, and were given lands in what is still known as Scottish Parish in the upper part of York Co. Among these prisoners, tradition says, was this James Warren who settled in Kittery in the upper part of the town, now South Berwick. He held various offices in the town, being selectman for several years. He died in 1702, his will dated December 9, 1700 and proved December 24, 1702. 42. ABIGAIL HEARD 3, TRISTRAM 2, JOHN 1, the daughter of Tristram and Abigail (Wentworth or Waldern) Heard, was born 15 April 1702, and she was bpt. 25 June 1749 (with her daughter,Phebe).

She married 1st
Jonathan 3 Wentworth, the son of Ephraim 2, Elder William 1 and Mary (Miller) Wentworth. He was born _____, died _____(between 1749 and 1756).

She married 2nd, (30 April 1756),
John Whitehouse. They lived in Middleton, N.H. and had several children (per Wentworth Genealogy). (see below) ??

Abigail 3 Heard seems to present somewhat of a problem, there is no doubt that she was the 5th child of Tristram 2 and wife (whose name was also Abigail) as the Dover records clearly set forth, but on examination of the will of Tristram 2 Heard no mention is made of any daughter Abigail. WHY? Such an oversight was very uncommon, yet when we examine the Wentworth Genealogy we find the following, quote "Jonathan 3 Wentworth, Ephraim 2, Elder William 1, married Abigail Heard, the daughter of Tristram and Abigail Heard", Jonathan 3 Wentworth was living in 1749 but his widow married 2nd. April 30, 1756 (22 years after he date of Tristram 2 Heard's will), John Whitehouse, and moved to Middleton, N.H. and had several children ?? (NOTE HER AGE) ??
See Wentworth Genealogy, Vol. 1, page 150, John Wentworth, the author of that work, spent a great deal of time and energy not to mention money in his research and because Abigail Heard was not mentioned in her father's will is no proof that she did not exist and Mr John Wentworth must have had some definite source of information when he made this statement, and for lack of more certain data to the contrary, we prefer to follow his theory.

March 19, 1764--Benjamin Heard of Dover, yeoman, for 75 pounds new tenor money, deeded to his son Thomas Heard of Dover, laborer, a parcel of land in the town of Somersworth.

Benjamin 4 Heard inherited his father's homestead which was originally granted in 1665 to his great grandfather Capt. John Heard who willed it to his son Benjamin 2 and which with 65 acres of land "more or less" he sold April 16, 1767 to James Guppy of Portsmouth, N.H. for 260 pounds. It is said that it was upon the insistance of Benjamin's wife Mary that this sale was consumated: she persuaded her husband to sell his Dover property which since has been known as the "Guppy Place" and purchase land in the north part of Berwick, Me. where their children would be removed from the bad influence then prevailing at Dover, thus Benjamin 4 Heard became one of the earliest settlers on Beach Ridge.

142. JOSIAH HEARD 4, JOHN 3, TRISTRAM 2, JOHN 1, the son of John and Charity (Day) Heard, was bpt. 27 September 1741, Dover, New Hampshire, and he died (apparently in Unity, Maine) 28 February 1827, aged 86 yrs. (See Unity, Maine Town records for deaths of both he and his wife Hannah, however no burial records are to be found).

He married (June 6, 1769, Dover, New Hampshire),
Hannah 6 Clements, who was born 14 October 1747, Dover, N.H.
She was baptized 21 July 1751, Rochester, N.H., and she died (apparently in Unity, Maine) 22 October 1820, aged 73 years. She was the daughter of Job 5 (Job 4, Job 3, Job 2, Robert 1) and Elizabeth (Rollins) Clements of Dover, N.H. (also see the CLEMENTS GENEALOGY).

Neither the JOHN HEARD OF Dover, N.H. nor the CLEMENTS genealogies show the issue of Josiah and Hannah, and the Dover, New Hampshire Vital Records of the town were burned.

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION SHOWS HOW I HAVE ARRIVED AT WHAT I BELIEVE TO BE THE DESCENDANTS OF HIRAM AND HANNAH (CLEMENTS) HEARD.

The name was changed from HEARD to HURD with this generation, both in Maine and in New Hampshire.

In 1778 we find Josiah and Hannah in Rochester, N.H., when he signed off his rights to his father's estate to his brother, John Heard.

In 1802 Josiah Heard, now of Dover, N.H., sold one share of his father-in-law, Job Clement (deceased), homestead farm.

In 1803 Josiah and Hannah Heard of Dover, N.H., and others, sold the balance of their rights to the same homestead farm.

In 1807-09 we find Josiah and Hannah living in Otisfield, Maine, (per the Maine Historical and Genealogical Recorder).

Continued.

In the "HISTORY of OTISFIELD, MAINE" book we find that William Hurd and wife, Louisa (Blanchard) Hurd, along with several children, lived there about 1805. William, at least, was there through 1815. There seem to be no records at all after 1815, not unexpectedly, as William was then on the "town dole", hence no gravestones nor burial records.

We also find that James Hurd, a brother of William, also lived in Otisfield at the same time. This James was subject to fits, and he apparently laid down at a spring in the field and was found dead, with his head in the water, circa 1808-10.

We also find that our HIRAM 5 HURD was apparently another brother and came to Otisfield from Unity in 1810 and bought Lot #9, Range #6, called Phillips Gore. This was the same lot that William Hurd resided on. Although Hiram only mortgaged the lot for $148.00 he failed to pay it off, so he did not complete ownership of the land.

I find no further records showing the residence of Josiah and Hannah after 1809, however their death records are recorded in the Unity, Maine town books.

I have found no actual proof that Josiah and Hannah ever did reside in Unity, but I can find no reason to record their deaths there if they had not been the parents of our Hiram Hurd of Unity.

However, Hannah (Clements) Hurd did have two brothers, Job and Jeremiah Clements, who had moved from Dover, New Hampshire to Knox, Maine. They both resided and died there, leaving many descendants.

FROM ALL OF THE ABOVE INFORMATION I HAVE TO CONCLUDE THAT,

William Hurd of Otisfield, James Hurd of "
Hiram Hurd of Unity, were all brothers, and son's of Josiah & Hannah

I fully realize that some of the above is circumstantial evidence as to the family relationship between Josiah and Hannah and the "SON'S", but I am convinced that it is correct.

I also find the following data, which may, or may not, pertain to the same family. These HURDS are all in the same general area, at the same time, but as yet I am unable to connect them to any branch of the HEARD-HURD FAMILY TREE.

v. GEORGE ROLLINS, born 5 November 1774, died 28 May 1834 in New Orleans, Louisiana.
He married Catherine Dolan of New York, who died 1856 in her 79th year. They lived in South Berwick, Me. until 1810, then removed to New York.
He commenced his business career as an associate with his father, in commerce with various European ports, Liverpool, Bordeaux, etc. Their business was greatly interrupted, and much loss ensued in consequence of the War of 1812, and the unlawful interference of British cruisers with American vessels which preceeded the actual hostilities. On one occasion, Capt. Rollins, with his brother-in-law, Delano, of New Bedford, took refuge in the harbor of Galway; another brother-in-law, closely persued by a cruiser, pressed sail until he ran his vessel under, and all were lost.
In 1812, to avoid pursuit, he sought shelter in the harbor of Norfolk, Virginia, and in the night a British barge came up and burned his vessel and cargo.
In the fall of 1813, under Swedish papers, he sailed for Barbadoes with a full cargo, a large portion of which the British again despoiled him, regardless of his papers. In 1815, after the close of the War, he again sailed under American papers, and continued in mercantile persuits until his death. He died a victim of terrible scourge, the Asiatic cholera, which swept the country during that war.

302. TRISTRAM HURD 5, JOHN 4, TRISTRAM 3, TRISTRAM 2, JOHN 1, the son of John and Hannah (_____) Heard, was born 10 November 1749 in Rochester, New Hampshire (bpt. there 11 August 1751), and he died in Harmony, Maine.

The name of his wife is not definitely known, some claim that she was a daughter of Samuel and _____(Hanson) Brewster, who lived on the road between Rochester, N.H. and Portland, Maine.

Others say that her name was Nancy _____.

Harmony, Maine Vital Records show that SALLY HEARD (note spelling) the mother of Isaiah (their 5th son), died August 1824 at the age of 73 years. This would make her born circa 1751.
This town record is the best proof we have of old Tristram 5 Hurd's wife's given name. As no mention is made of Tristram when Sally died, August 1824, I have to believe that Tristram had died before that date, that is (after 1808 and before 1824).

I have a copy of the application of Olive (Jenkins)) Davis to the D.A.R. On that she states that Tristram Heard married (about 1780) Somersworth, New Hampshire, MARY HORN, who was born 24 May 1765 (probably in Somersworth, N.H.), and that she died 18 January 1844 also (probably in Somersworth, N.H.). This record also shows that this Mary Horn was buried in the Somersworth, N.H. Methodist Church Cemetery.

There is just NO WAY that this MARY HORN, born 1765, could have been the wife of this TRISTRAM 5 HURD. She would have only been about eight (8) years of age when Tristram's earliest children were born.

I FIRMLY BELIEVE THAT TRISTRAM 5 HURD'S ONE (AND ONLY) WIFE WAS THE SALLY _____, shown above, D.A.R. record notwithstanding.

Tristram Hurd appears to have been obsessed with wanderlust, for he is thought to have lived in Alton and Ossipee, N.H., and in 1796, in search of "greener pastures" he began his long and arduous trek from Wolfboro, N.H., to the spot which he finally realized was his destination.

The following was copied from a scrap book in the possession of Ben Grant, who, at the time, lived on the original HURD FARM.

"Tristram Hurd came to Harmony from Wolfboro, N.H. He came through solid wilderness following a blazed trail by way of Malbon's Mills, and Skowhegan Falls. When he reached the top of Fox Hill in Athens, he climbed a tree and saw spread out before him like a mirror, Moose Pond and beautiful Blue Grass Meadow, (he had found his home) and here he built his log house and cleared his farm, taking up 500 acres"

The History of Somerset County says he brought his family and cattle with him.

The whole plantation consisting of 23040 acres was surveyed in 1790 by Samuel Weston of Skowhegan and was given to Hallowell Academy by Massachusetts (of which Maine was then a part). Charles Vaughn, a prominent resident of Hallowell purchased the plantation and for a time it became known as Vaughnstown. Tristram Hurd, the first permanent settler of the town, was followed the next year by the Merrill Family, who came from Shapleigh, and others followed soon after.

At a meeting held in the dwelling of one of the neighbors, the name of Harmony was chosen by Mrs Hurd because of the good feeling which prevailed among the inhabitants. On June 15, 1803, by an act of the Legislature of Massachusetts, the plantation was incorporated into the town of Harmony. At the first town meeting, which was held in the home of William Leighton Jr., officers were elected, John Merrill, moderator; James Leighton, town clerk; Tristram Hurd, James Leighton and William Leighton, selectmen; William Leighton Jr., treasurer; and Stephen Dore, constable and collector.

Among the first marriages in the town were: Samuel Hurd and Sally Rives, Jeremiah Hurd and Nancy Brown, John Hurd and Jane Tucker.

January 30, 1808 Tristram Hurd deeded land in Harmony to his son Isaiah on whose farm Tristram is buried in the exact place which he himself selected for the purpose.

309, HIRAM HURD 5, JOSIAH 4, JOHN 3, TRISTRAM 2, JOHN 1, the son of Josiah and Hannah (Clements) Heard, was born 19 August 1778, Dover, N.H. and he died 2 March 1861 in Swanville, Me. (see Belfast Republican Journal of 22 March 1861 for his death notice). He had been living with his daughter Aseneth (Hurd) Strout, and his son-in-law, Ambrose Strout, when he died. The above newspaper write-up made no mention of his wife, Parthenia, so she had probably pre-deceased him.

In 1800 (cert. 28 September 1800) he married Parthenia Pattee, who was born June 1784, Vassalboro, the daughter of Ebenezer and Mary (Stinson) Pattee. (SEE PATTEE GENEALOGY, written by W. Tracy Eustis, 1899).

This large Pattee family was formerly of Arrowsic Island, then to Vassalborough, and were early settlers, about 1792, of Twenty-Five Mile Pond Plantation. They built mills at the junction of Sandy and Half Moon Streams, now known as Farwell's Mills, in what is now Unity, Maine.

I can find no record of either Hiram or Parthenia's burial locations.

The same year that they married (1800), Hiram and Parthenia settled in Twenty-Five Mile Pond Plantation. Four years later, (1804), this Plantation was incorporated into the Town of Unity, Massachusetts.
In 1807, Hiram signed a petition, in Unity, to the Senate and House of Representatives in Boston, Mass. He served as a private in the Unity Town Militia, in Lieut. Benjamin J. Rackliff's Company, Lieut. Col. H. Moore's Regiment, during the War of 1812.
Unity town records show Hiram as a Constable and Tax Collector for Unity in 1814, amongst other occupations.

In 1828, Hiram Hurd's farm comprised 171 acres of which 50 acres were under cultivation. He kept 2 oxen, about 11 head of livestock, a horse.

By 1839 he had disposed, probably to his sons, some of his property for he had only 95 acres, of which 16 acres he called improved land, he was however, credited with a pleasure carriage.

The next year, 1840, Hiram had entered retirement for his property consisted of but $667.00 Bankstock, and no land listed. Hiram Jr., his 2nd son, seems to have taken over the farm by then. Shortly after both eldest sons moved away and Andrew Jackson Hurd took over the Hurd farm operation.
At some point the original Hurd homestead burned and the land passed to the ownership of a Sumner Abbott. The land was later bought from Abbott by Andrew Jackson Hurd and farmed by Andrew's son, Hiram Walter Hurd.

This information is taken from the Unity Town Records, Rev. Charles Monteith's papers, Hurd Family records, Town History of Unity, the Waldo County Court House Records, Registry of Deeds, etc.

NOTE:
Although the Hurd Family descendants seem to have quite a complete record of the issue of Hiram and Parthenia, there may POSSIBLY have been another son.

The "History of Otisfield, Maine", page 431, shows our Hiram Hurd of Unity had a son named DANIEL FLETCHER HURD, born 16 January 1804.

The dates of birth show that this may well have been the case, however, this Daniel (born 1804) could well have been the son of Hiram's brother, William and Louisa (Blanchard) Hurd of Otisfield, Maine, as this is the only reference that I can locate which mentions this boy.

If this Daniel Fletcher Hurd was actually the son of Hiram and Parthenia, he must have died before 1822, when their last son was born.

MARY HEARD 2, JOHN 1, the daughter of Israel and Mehitable (Hayes) Ham, was born 8 January 1792, and died 24 September 1876.
She married (by Rev. Mr. Haven), 11 November 1813,
Charles 6 Dennett, who was born 28 Sept. 1788 in Barnstead, N.H., and he died 4 March 1867, the 4th of 8 children of Moses 5 (Charles 4, Moses 3, Alexander 2-1) and Betsey (Nutter) Dennett.

In 1812 he moved to Rochester, N.H. where he took up his trade as cabinet maker. He had much mechanical ingenuity, was apprenticed at the age of fourteen to a cabinetmaker in Gilmanton, N.H., where he remained through the period of seven years, which was then considered requisite to mastering any trade. It was then considered a difficult task to veneer with mahogany, but he laid his first veneer successfuly without ever having seen it done. He was a very tasteful workman and many inlaid clock-cases, sideboards, secretaries, bureaus and tables with exquisitely carved and twisted legs, still exist to testify to his skill and through workmanship. His up-right habits and steady industry soon won the respect of his townsmen. He had been in Rochester but a brief time when Mr. Upham, one of his neighbors, came and offered him a loan of money: he replied that he "would like it very much, but could give no security". Mr. Upham responded "So long as I hear you at work every morning at four o'oclock, I wish no other security".

Just before his marriage Mr. Dennett built the dwelling house on Main St. which was his home for nearly fifty-four years, and the birthplace of all of his nine children. He had quite an amount of inventive talent. In 1822 he constructed a corn-sheller that would shell a bushel of corn in three minutes, separating the corn from the cobs. He also made a lock which was used many years upon the vault of the bank of which he was a director, and which repeatedly defied the efforts of burglars. When about forty one years old, he gave up cabinet making and devoted himself to surveying, administering upon estates, drawing up wills and other legal documents, giving so much attention to the probate business that he became quite an authority in such matters. He filled various offices of trust: as selectman, town clerk, county treasurer, representative to the State Legislature and was deputy sheriff for eighteen years. He was a prominent Free Mason and was Master of his lodge fifteen years, treasurer fourteen years, and district Deputy Grand Master four years. He was a charter member of Motolinia Lodge, I.O.O.F. and was its permanent secretary twenty-one years.

As the birthdate is very close and we also know that Jeremiah died between the 1850 and 1860 census taking time, I feel quite safe in using the birth and death dates on the gravestone.
Even further proof is the gravestone beside it showing, "NANCY, July 1789--11 March 1875", this just had to his wife.
In my correspondence with Mrs Hilton I find that she shows that Nancy was born 11 July 1785, instead of 1789 ???

He married 1st (int. 27 Nov. 1851), Catherine Brown, who was born circa 1832, (shown as 28 years old in the 1860 Harmony, Me. census). This 1860 Harmony census shows Tristram and wife Catherine, and daughter Rosa.

Laura's 2 children (by her 1st marriage) were also living with them, House #85. I find no record of Tristram and Laura having any issue, neither do I find any further record of them after the 1870 census.

In talking to Mrs Lulu (Lawrence) Brown and Mrs John West Jr., and others, I find that there is a local tradition that Tristram was supposed to have murdered his wife and children, which wife I do not know. However, his first 5 children all died on different dates and are supposedly buried near the old homestead, the gravestones are now found scattered in the bushes across the street from the home of M/M John West Jr. I can find no record of death dates or burial locations for Tristram nor his 2 wives.

Both buried in the Highlands Cemetery, Carmel, Me.
He was a Civil War Veteran, Co. "F", 1st Maine Hy. Art'ly.

787. i. HENRY HARRISON HURD, born 29 May 1841, married Sarah A. Barden

ii. JETHRO HURD, born 18 Jan. 1843, died 14 Nov. 1909, aged 66-9-26, Mars Hill, Me.

Ralph Peak's book states that "It has been said that Jethro Hurd could get more lumber out of a log of wood than any man in the State of Maine"

He was a Civil War Veteran, Co. "F", 2nd Maine Regiment and he was also in the 1st Maine Cavalry.

He married (27 July 1865, Dixmont, Me.),
Sarah E. (or W.) _____, who was born 16 April 1847. Court records show that she divorced him 22 April 1868, at which time he was living in Norton Hills, Vt. During their short married life they had lived in Mars Hill, Me., and in Carmel, Me., where they are both buried in the Highlands Cemetery.

(born Anson, Me.) and Sarah B. _____(born Dexter, Me.).
They were divorced 21 January 1892, no issue.
(Divorce records show that he was impotent).

The 1900 Carmel, Maine census shows Cyrus as being 57 years old and a widower for the 2nd time, however, it seems that the record should have shown him as divorced twice instead.

He married 3rd (9 July 1894, Bangor, Me.),
Mrs Laura M. (Hanscomb) Jones, who was born circa 1859, the daughter of Stephen and Louisa Hanscomb (both born Machias, Me.). Cyrus and Laura lived in Princeton, Me. until 17 Dec. 1894, about 5 months.

On that date the authorities notified Cyrus that not only his wife Laura had been married to _____Jones, but that on 26 June 1887 she had married a James Nesbitt, and in September 1889 she had married a Harvey Whitcomb, both of whom were still living and never divorced.

Needless to say, the marriage of Cyrus and Laura was annulled on 20 April 1895.

JOHN 1, the son of John and Mary (Roberts) Heard, was born 26 Oct. 1792 in No. Berwick, Me., and he died 4 Dec. 1873, Lynn, Mass., aged 81 yrs.

He fitted himself for a teacher at South Berwick Academy and began to teach at the age of sixteen. During his life he was master of 22 schools. He entered Dartmouth but left at the end of six months because Hebrew was not in the curriculum. He studied under the tuition of Rev. Joseph Hilliard.

From 1821 to 1841 he resided in Springvale (Sanford), Me., and in 1841 he removed to Shapleigh, Me. and lived for 22 years near Emery's Mills.

He was ordained as Calvinist Baptist Minister. He represented Shapleigh in the Maine Legislature in 1844.

It is related of him that he once demurred at paying his taxes because he thought them exhorbitant, whereupon the assessors requested him to give in writing an inventory of his estate, real and personal. He returned the following

"A shell of a house, a shattered barn
Ten acres of terrell comprise my farm
An orchard, which haply six barells may yeald
That covers a very good part of my field
One two-year old, two yearlings compose my stock
Quite meagre my apparrel and scanty my flock."

BENJAMIN 2, JOHN 1, the son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Stillings) Heard, was born 15 July 1805, and he died 15 July 1842 (per Westbrook, Me.V.R)

He married (19 June 1831, Buxton, Me.), Sarah Merrill Mason.

iii. HELEN HURD, born 26 October 1837, died 17 September 1838

iv. CHARLES T. HURD, born 17 Oct.1839, died 12 Nov. 1913, Portland, Maine, aged 74 yrs (per death cert.)

He was shown as 11 years in the 1850 Westbrook census.

He married 1st, Olive L. _____. The 1870 Westbrook census shows him as 20 yrs, Olive L. as 28 years old, he an apprentice blacksmith, living in a boarding house.

He married 2nd, (27 June 1900, Portland, Me.), Mrs Mary F. Barker (as her 2nd husband). She was born in Harmony, Me., and she died 5 June 1914, aged 64-1-8, in Portland, Me., however, her death cert. shows her as born in Augusta, Me. (probably Harmony was correct).

Her maiden name is found in at least four different ways, CARSON-CARROW-CASSON- CASSION. The 1850 Harmony, Maine census shows her as 1 year old. the daughter of Alexander and Betsey A. (Hill) CARSON, but, by the time of her 2nd marriage, I find that her marriage cert. shows her as the daughter of Alex CASSION. Her age in the 1900 census was shown as 47 yrs, instead of the more correct 51 yrs. Her father was born in Norridgewock, Me., and her mother was born in Bloomfield, Me.

Charles and Mary's marriage cert. shows him as 54, instead of the nearer correct age of 60-61 yrs. To further confuse their ages, we find Charles in the 1900 Portland, Me. census, shown as born October 1846, aged 53 yrs, and widowed, also that he had been married 17 yrs?

He was shown as a railroad gate-tender, living on Forest Avenue, Ward #9, in a boarding house. This census must have been taken just prior to his 2nd marriage, June 1900.

If all of this is correct, it would make Charles born October 1846, 53 yrs old in the 1900 census, 54 yrs old when married 2nd in 1900, but he would have been 74 years old when he died in 1913, therefore he would have aged 20 years between 1900 and 1913. All this needs much more explanation as the dates are far from correct.

No record of issue of Charles T. by either marriage.

married 2nd, Cora B. Gray

677. CHARLES HURD 7, HENRY 6, JOSEPH 5-4-3, TRISTRAM 2, JOHN 1, the son of Henry and Sarah (Richardson) Hurd, was born circa 1833-35 (shown as 17 yrs in 1850 Rochester, N.H. census) and (25 yrs in the 1860 Rochester, N.H. census). However, when he died, 7 Dec. 1907 in Worcester, Mass., the Mass. V.R. show that he was 69 yrs old, born in Rochester, N.H.; this would make his birth date 1838, highly improbable in view of the 1850 and 1860 census records. When he died he was shown as a "mill hand", and the V.R. show him as buried in Worcester, Mass. He was a Civil War Veteran. He apparently lived in Rochester, N.H. until about 1872-73, then by 1874 he was in Lewiston, Me. Between 1876 and 1878, he moved to Maynard, Mass., and then moved to the Worcester, Mass. area.

He married 1st, (11 Nov. 1852, Rochester, N.H.), Ruth Abigail Harford, who was born circa 1835 (shown as 25 yrs in 1860 Rochester, N.H. census) the daughter of Charles Harford. She died in Rochester, N.H.

He married 2nd, (probably between 1866 and 1872),
Mary Moynihan (per Mass. V.R.), who was born in Ireland, the daughter of Edmond and Mary (Cummings) Moynihan. Mass. V.R. show that she died 13 July 1889, aged 39 yrs, in Worcester, Mass.(of alcoholism). This age at death would make her born in 1850, but the 1880 Worcester, Mass. census record shows her as then being 37 yrs of age--therefore born in 1843 ??

In both Ralph Peak's book, and in papers of John Plummer, I find that Charles married 2nd, the widow ANNIE MONAHAN. Mary and Annie may, or may not, be the same person ??

She married (16 March 1843, Harmony, Me.), by Jesse Merrill, Justice of the Peace, Nelson Smith of Belgrade, Me. (Harmony V.R. shows that he was 23 yrs old and she was 16 yrs old). Nelson's death record (Stetson, Me. V.R.) shows that he was born circa 1820 in Belgrade, Me., and he died 18 July 1896, aged 76-5-26 in Stetson, Me. This death record shows his mother as SALLY DUNN, but his father is shown as unknown.

NOTE: Adeline's sister Hannah had married Henry M. Smith in 1841, and then, when Adeline married Nelson Smith in 1843, it seems that Ralph Peak, in his HEARD-HURD book, showed them as brothers. The Danny Smith work contradicts this. So Nelson now seems to be a nephew, instead of a brother of Henry.

Adeline and Nelson lived in Belgrade, Me. in 1850, but by 1860 they had moved to Stetson, Me., where they stayed the rest of their lives. They are both buried in the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Stetson, Me. Adeline has a fine large tall monument, but Nelson has no marker himself; Stetson V.R. show that he is buried there however.

NOTE: A WAYLAND HURD was of Milo, Me. 1 March 1892.

Continued.

He apparently married Abby _____, who was born circa 1857, (she was shown as 23 in 1880 Charleston, Me.census) These MAY be his step-children instead of his children ?? The way that the 1880 Charleston, Me. census reads, I think that Abby had been married before, perhaps to a Haines or Harris (hard to read census), however, they are all shown as grand-children of Norrod 7 Hurd, Whalen's father, with whom they were all living (per Charleston, Maine 1880 census)

a. NELSON _____, born circa 1874 (6 in 1880)
b. SARAH _____, born circa 1878 (2 in 1880)
c. EFFIE _____, born circa 1879 (1 in 1880)

xii. ABBIE C. HURD, born February 1855 married James T. Cosgrove, who was born April 1858 in Canada. They were living in Anson, Maine in 1900 (per census records), which also show that they had two children before 1900, however I find record of only one.

a. SADIE A. COSGROVE, born October 1877 married (circa 1894), Byron B. Foss, who was born March 1863. (no issue per 1900 Anson census) xiii. WILBUR B. HURD, born April 1857, Harmony, Me., and he died there 27 January 1914, aged 57 yrs.

He married (12 Nov. 1879, Orneville, Me.)
Alwilda (or Almeda) D. Cone, who was born circa 1857-8 in either Charlotte or Calais, Me., the daughter of William Cone (born Gardiner, Me.) and Lydia L. Smith (born Charlotte, Me.)
Superior Court records show that they were divorced 6 Jan. 1892 (due to Wilbur's drunken habits), however, when she remarried in 1904, she shows as a widow. Wilbur and Alwilda had lived in Charleston in 1880, Ornville and Winterport until 1882. He had taken a pistol shot at her (per Divorce decree). By 1892 she was living in Corinna. In 1881 Wilbur was living in Orneville, in 1890 in Hampden, and 1900 in Anson, Me.

b. LEWIS NORMAN HURD, born 25 January 1881, Orneville

Divorce records show that Alwilda went (5 December 1882, when she left Wilbur) from Winterport back to Ornville to live with her sister (to whom she gave the youngest child), Lewis Norman Hurd. Then by 1904 we find Alwilda living in Kenduskeag, Maine. On 4 Dec. 1904 at East Corinth, Alwilda married William W. Page (as his 2nd wife), he had been widowed. William was born circa 1831 in Charleston, Me., the son of William H. Page (born Belgrade, Me.) and Harriet Dougherty (born Sedgwick, Me).

xiv. NORROD W. HURD, born circa 1858 (2 in 1860 Harmony census)
(not in 1870 " ")

xv. WILLIAM HURD, born circa 1872

The following is copied word for word from Ralph Peak's book, however, due to the above birth date, 1872, William's mother, Lovina, would have been about 56 years of age when he was born.

"William, born circa 1872 in Harmony, Maine, married 15 October 1897 (at age 25) in North Anson, Lizzie Burns (at age 15), born in Emden, Maine, the daughter of John Burns (born in Emden) and Isabel _____(born Anson, Me."

This quote is almost identical to the marriage record of William and Lizzie shown in the Augusta, Maine records, so I have to go along with it.

I also find the marriage date as 15 September 1896.

William and Lizzie were divorced 15 February 1901, Franklin County, Maine.

iv. EUGENE C. HURD, born January 1852, died 20 May 1920 in the Bangor State Hospital, Bangor, Maine. He was buried in lot #1873 Public, Mt. Hope Cemetery, Bangor, Me.

On 5 August 1882 he murdered his brother, Howard W. Hurd, for which he went to the Maine State Prison. I understand that he was pardoned shortly before he died. He had been living in Monticello, Me., just before his death. From the 7 August 1882 Bangor Daily Commercial newspaper I find that Eugene had lived in New Brunswick, Canada, for some time and that he had apparently married a girl from there less than a year before, and then had moved back to Harmony. As quoted from that paper--
"It almost seems that this murder had been premeditated as the shotgun had an extremely heavy load. It seems that 45 buckshot were removed from Howard's wounds. This is far far heavier than a normal shotgun load".

In the "Harmony History, Happenings, Habits and Humor". booklet (as shown above) there is a very long poem telling of the murder. From reading that I have to assume that Eugene's wife was pregnant with their 1st child, however, she lost it, very young. By then, she had gone back to New Brunswick. Nowhere do I find her name.

727. GEORGE WASHINGTON HURD JR. 7, GEORGE 6, TRISTRAM 5, JOHN 4, TRISTRAM 3-2, JOHN 1, the son of George and Susannah (Brown) Hurd, was born 29 June 1816 in Harmony, Me., and he died 1906 in Winterport, Me.

He married 1st (4 Feb. 1844, Harmony, Me. V.R.), Martha Witham, who was born circa 1821, and she died between 1854 and 1859, probably in Ripley, Me The 1850 Harmony, Me. census shows George and Martha living there then, no children when the census was taken. The Ralph Peak book shows that George and Martha had other children, who died early, but I have found no names or dates as of now.

He married 2nd (cert. 30 July 1859, Ripley, Me. V.R.), Mrs Nancy E. (Smith) Crocker of Ripley, Me., who was born circa 1834, and she died in 1880. The 1860 Ripley census shows George 43, Nancy 26.

728. JOHN (or JONATHAN) HURD 7, GEORGE 6, TRISTRAM 5, JOHN 4,

TRISTRAM 3-2, JOHN 1, the son of George and Susannah (Brown) Hurd, was born 16 Sept. 1818 in Harmony, Me., and he died (suicide by hanging) in Winn. Me. (possibly in October 1883), however, he does not show in the 1880 Winn, Me. census, but there is shown a JOHN HURD, born 1818, in the 1880 Winterport, Me. census, as a boarder, father born New Hampshire, living with John Hurd (See # 728). They would have been 1st cousins. The above John Hurd could well have been working or visiting there at the time. John is supposedly buried outside the fence (per family tradition) of the Winn, Maine Cemetery. In those days those who committed suicide were many times not allowed to be buried inside the cemetery bounds.

He married (circa 1843-44, probably in Harmony, Me.), Mehitable Witham, who was very likely a sister of his brother George W. Jr's wife, Martha (See # 727). She was born circa 1826-28, in either New Sharon, or Farmington, Maine. Census records show her as 22 yrs old in 1850 Harmony, 33 yrs old in 1860 Chester, 44 yrs old in 1870 Winn, and 50 yrs old in 1880 Winn. She died 12 Nov. 1903 in Winn, Me., and her gravestone there shows her as aged 80-4-10, however, her death record in Augusta shows her as 79 yrs old. Dates are somewhat confusing here.

issue. (MANY) 1st 3 at least born in Harmony, Me.

I have records of 10 children, however, family tradition is that there were many more births, some stillborn, some died very young. No family member, as far as I can tell, seems to have an accurate record of the children.

V.R. show that she died 15 January 1901), UNMARRIED, however The Daughters Of The American Revolution (See # 302) shows that she died 23 April 1869, Omro, Wisconsin. This record also shows that she had married (22 Sept. 1839), Jarius Harris, who was born 28 July 1818, Cambridge, Maine, and that he died 12 August 1907, Medford, Wisc. This record also shows at least one child.

The 1900 Cambridge, Me. census shows a CHARLES CROCKER, born Feb. 1891, 9 yrs old, grand-son. This of course means thay one of the girls had married a _____Crocker. I do not know which one as yet.

The Cambridge Cemetery would be good for many answers.

731. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN HURD 7, GEORGE 6, TRISTRAM 5, JOHN 4, TRISTRAM 3-2.

JOHN 1, the son of George and Susannah (Brown) Hurd, was born 5 Oct. 1829, and he died _____ (after the 1880 Bangor census was taken).

He married (15 June 1866, Bangor, Me.), Sarah E. Kingsbury, who was born circa 1846 (per 1870 Harmony, and 1880 Bangor census), in Orneville, Me., but, when she died, 19 Aug. 1923, Bangor, Me., her obituary showed her as aged 72 yrs, which would make her born circa 1851. Probably the born circa 1846 is nearer correct. She is buried in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Bangor, Me., Lot #939, Public. She was the daughter of Willard A. and _____(Haskell) Kingsbury (both born in America). I find no death or burial for Benjamin as yet. The 1870 Harmony, Me. census shows them living there, he 40, she 24 yrs old. They must have lived in Bangor in 1867 and 1868, as their 1st and 2nd children were buried there. By 1880, Bangor census time, they were back in Bangor, Benjamin as 49 yrs, Sarah as 34 yrs.

I do not know where Benjamin and Sarah lived before, but by 1923, Sarah and their son Benjamin F. (Bennie as he was called) were living in a horrible shack on Yale Street, Bangor, Me. Sarah died there in 1923 and son Benjamin F. continued to live there until his death in 1931.

See the Bangor Daily Newspaper of 29 June 1931 for picture and write-up of this deplorable way to live and die.

Records at Mt. Hope Cemetery show that Benjamin F. and Sarah E. paid for their burial lot #939 on 13 Nov. 1879, so he is probably buried there also, although Mt. Hope Cemetery records fail to show his burial.

TRISTRAM 3-2, JOHN 1, the daughter of John and Ann Mehitable (Witham) Hurd, was born 18 April (or 18 Sept.) 1845 in Harmony, Me.

She was 5 in 1850 Harmony census, and 15 in the 1860 Chester census, so 1845 would appear to be the correct birth year, however, when she died 5 May 1924 in East Winn, Maine, her death record shows that she was born 18 April 1842, and her age as 82-0-5, (both of which just had to be wrong). She is buried in the Winn, Maine Cemetery.

NOTE: The 1900 and 1910 Lee, Maine census records show that Martha had eighteen (18) children before 1900, and that 9 were then living. If this record is correct, Martha and George would have had 14 children. I am only able to come up with 7 names so far, but family tradition has always been that Martha and George had lost many children, some stillborn, and some who died very young.

TRISTRAM 3-2, JOHN 1, the daughter of John and Ann Mehitable (Witham) Hurd, was born 16 June 1858 (probably in Chester, Me.), but her death record in Auburn, Me. shows that she was born in Winn, Me.
The 1860 Chester, Me. census shows her as ELIZA, aged 11 months.
The 1870 Winn, Me. census shows her as FRANCES, aged 11 years.
The 1880 Winn, Me. census shows JOSEPHINE F., aged 20 years, single.
She died 8 Feb. 1935, aged 76-7-22, in East Hebron, Maine. She had been living there with her son, James Walter (Hurd) Smith. Her small funeral notice in the Bangor Daily News shows her as formerly of Orono, Me.
Her death information is from the Lewiston Evening Journal of 9 Feb. 1935. The undertaker, James E. Warren of Buckfield, Me. delivered her remains to the Orono, Maine Tomb, for later burial. I have checked with the Orono Town Clerk's office, Cemetery Record Dep't. and the local undertaker, but as yet have been unable to find a burial location for her, no record of her burial in Orono, Me. However, the late Verna Goodwin of Brewer, Maine, told me that Josephine was buried on her 3rd husband's "STEVENS FAMILY LOT" in Orono, Me.
I do not know where the Auburn, Maine town clerk's office obtained their erroneous information for Josephine's death record, but it shows:
Father, NATHANIEL HURD, born Lee, Me.
Mother, Mehitable Jones, born Albany, Me. and her name as JOSEPHINE FOSTER STEVENS, widowed.

The Winn, Me. V.R. shows that Nathan filed marriage intentions 6 Nov. 1882 with Jenny Flemming of Woodville Plantation, Me., but Nathan's mother objected and he, being a minor, was refused permission to marry.

Nathan married 1st, (1 Jan. 1882, Winn, Me.), Elizabeth Jane Savage, who was born 11 March 1861 in Woodville, Me., and she died 6 March 1938 in Lincoln, Me. She was the daughter of Andrew A. and Betsey Watters (Hatch) Savage. See "HISTORY OF CHESTER, MAINE", by Mrs Mabel L. Booker for more information.
Nathan and Elizabeth Jane were divorced 5 May 1896 (per Court records), which also show clearly that Elizabeth Jane could well be classed as a real B.I. (however, it must have taken two people to have such classic arguements).

Shortly after their divorce, Elizabeth Jane married 2nd, 19 May 1896, Lincoln, Me.), Benjamin Jipson, who was born 31 March 1855, the son of Thomas and Phoebe Jane (Treadwell) Jipson. NOTE: The STEVENS FAMILY tradition says that Charles father, William Stevens, came from England, via Nova Scotia and Eastport, and also shows that the family name was originally "ROSENCRANTZ" or "ROSEKRANS" or "ROSENKRANS" or "ROSECRANSE". I find all of these different spellings. Myrtle and Charles daughter, Mrs Verna (Stevens) Goodwin, late of Brewer, Maine, kindly helped me all that she could with the HURD-STEVENS families. She also told me That Sophia App, her grand-mother,was the daughter of Joseph App.

As a young man, he worked as a blacksmith in the lumber camps of the northern Maine woods. He later owned his own blacksmith shop.

He purchased his first farm, (at age 30) on one of the back roads in Bradford, then for the rest of his life, he owned and operated a dairy farm located on Outer Broadway, Bangor, Maine. What began as a very modest dairy operation, with 30 cows, (circa 1934) grew into one of Bangor's largest dairy farms.

FRANZ, at 98 years of age, still drove his own automobile. When he took his last examination the examiner told him that "he was the best driver in the family". What this said for the others is your guess.

He married 1st (16 Oct. 1912, Auburn, Me.), Eva M. Longley. who was born 1884 in Bradford, Me., and she died there 8 Dec. 1914, aged 30-5-2, the daughter of Henry W. and Adora E. (Hanson) Longley.

LIME ROCK GAZETTE, East Thomaston, Maine, Thursday, 6 August 1846

"It will be seen by reference to an advertisement in another column, that the PEAK FAMILY, so highly recommended in the following paragraph from the Maine Enquirer, will give a concert at the Universalist Church, in this village, on Thursday evening 6th inst. We would respectfully advise out citizens to take this article on trust, and evidence their usual good taste by giving them a full house:---

The PEAK FAMILY, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Peak, and their three children, William, Julia and Fanny, from Medford, Massachusetts, gave concerts at our Town Hall on Thursday and Saturday evenings last, which were fully attended, and, we are happy to learn gave general satisfaction. We are not qualified to pronounce upon the 'scientific' features of the performances, but from the fact that our best vocalists attended both concerts, and seemed to enjoy them, we infer that they would stand the test of reasonable criticism. There is no tomfoolery, no vulgarity, no Jim Crow, connected with these concerts, but good order and good sense mark them throughout. Even the laughable selections (and there is much to exite the risibles) bear the impress of good moral sentiment. That little Fanny is a case, and the single "Overthere", sung by her is worth double the price of admission. Mr Hector, formerly of the Ranier Family, by his deep, inimitable bass, adds much to the attractions of these family performances. The "family" is deserving of success and we hope that while travelling through our state and singing Con't.

the frigid "down-easters" into a good humor they will reap a rich reward". Tickets 12½ cents, to be had at the door.

the son of_____and _____ was born (probably May 1827) in one of 3 towns which show in various places, Dover or Great Falls or Somersworth, all in New Hampshire. Am not at all sure of his death date, but he could well be the one who died 18 April 1901, aged 72-10-20 (?), in Dixfield, Maine.

This GEORGE HURD is shown in the Augusta, Maine records as being born in Great Falls, New Hampshire. He was shown as a shoemaker in the 1860 Dover, New Hampshire census, and as a spinner in the woolen mill in 1870, Oxford, Maine census.

He married 1st, Louisa F. Learned, who was born circa 1821. Various records show her as born in Dexter, Maine, and/or in Canton, Maine. Not sure which is correct as yet. Apparently Louisa died between the 1860 Dover, New Hampshire census time and the 1870 Oxford, Maine census time, as George had married again by then.

He married 2nd, Keziah M. Vining, who was born circa 1836, and she died 8 June 1894, aged 58-2-17, in Webster, Maine, the daughter of Benjamin and Linda (Thompson) Vining. By 1880 George and Keziah were living in Pleasant Ridge, Maine (per census records).

Census records show that George had lived in many locations, namely, Great Falls, Somersworth, Manchester and Dover in New Hampshire, and in Andover, Pleasant Ridge, Norway, Dixfield and Oxford in Maine.

See Andover, Maine V.R. Film # 11 in Augusta for information on first five children (at least).

UNEXPLAINED HEARD's and HURD's

JAMES HURD

the son of James and Margaret (_____) Hurd, was born 5 April 1805, and he died 21 October 1886, aged 81-6-16 in Bangor, Maine.

His daughter Elizabeth's death ctf. shows him as born in Portsmouth, Hampshire, and his son William's death ctf. shows him as born in Fryeburg, Maine.

He married Lydia Hamm (perhaps Ham), or Lydia (Harmon, per his son William's death ctf.). She was born 23 April 1813, and died 15 November 1884, aged 71-6-22, in Bangor, Maine. Her daughter Elizabeth's, and son William's, death certificates both show Lydia as born in Hebron, Maine, but daughter Naomi's 1900 Bangor, Maine census record shows Lydia as being born in Vermont. Son Samuel's death ctf. shows Lydia HAMM, born in Athens, Maine. Very confusing to say the least.

The 1834-1843-1846 Bangor, Maine City Directories show James, as a carpenter and/or joiner, living on the Oldtown-Orono Road, and 1877-78 Directories show him as living on State Street, near Hogan Road.

Cemetery records in the Mt. Hope Cemetery, Bangor, Maine, show both James and Lydia as being buried there, Lot # 932, but they just don't know the location. If they are buried in Mt. Hope Cemetery, which they very likely are, they apparently have no gravestones.
